YENSON Philip Owen (William)

Jottings

For some reason he was known as William/Billy at every club - but he is recorded as Philip, professional footballer, in Croydon in the 1911 census

Was apparently of Swedish extraction - originally Jensen perhaps?

Was originally a centre forward and made his F.A. Cup final appearance in this position before becoming a half back

Captained the Queens Park Rangers side which won the Southern League in 1907-08

Gained Southern League Division 2 and Southern Football Alliance championship honours with Croydon Common

Held the Croydon Common record for successive seasons (6 from 1909-10 to 1914-15)

Appeared for Croydon Common in 13 minor cup matches, without scoring

Was the only Croydon Common player to appear on a cigarette or trade card whilst at the club

An injury early in the 1914-15 season ended his Croydon Common career

Appeared 23 times for Margate in 1919-20 in the Kent League, the F.A. Cup and the Kent Senior Cup, scoring once, and he captained the side

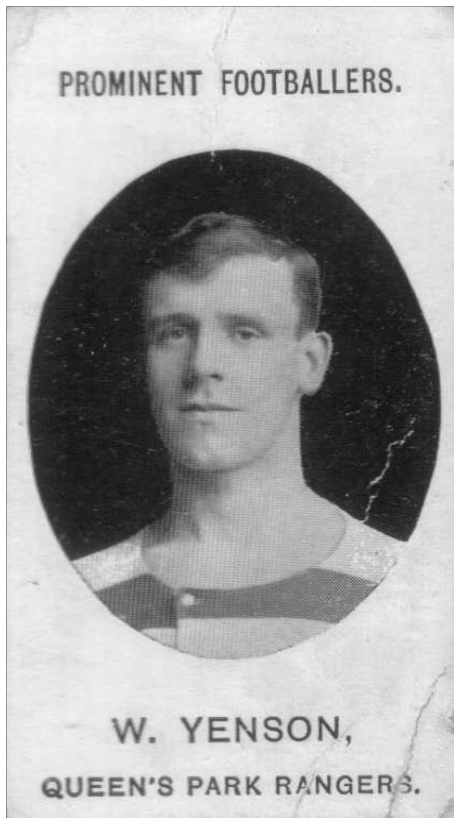

Two of his brothers also appeared for the Robins

Had a tobacconist's shop at 64 High Street, Thornton Heath in Croydon which he advertised in the Croydon Common handbooks

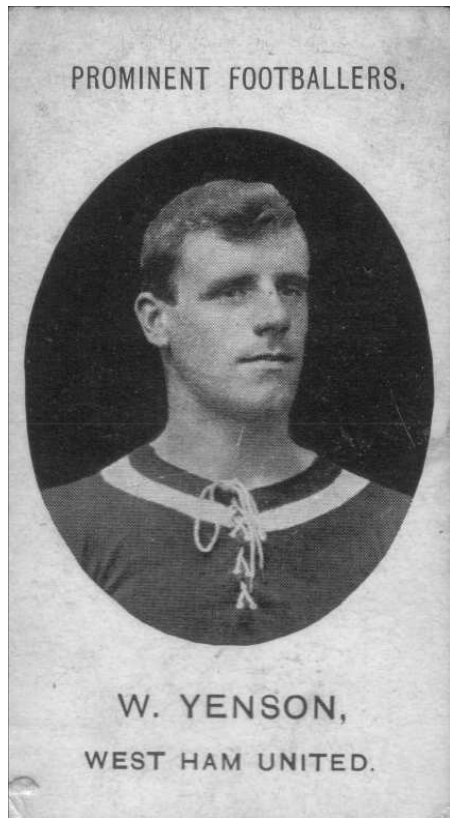

The 1911 census records him as living, aged 28, at 64 High Street, Thornton Heath, Croydon with his wife Mabel (31) and daughters Dorothy (6), Mable (4) and Queenie (1)

Died at 144 Elgin Road, Ilford, Essex

His son KENNY played for Bromley against Romford (1-0) in the 1949 Amateur Cup Final at Wembley
